

BACONOLOGY

a visual look at some fun facts in the world of bacon

In 1955, the Waffle House has served more than 786,449,153 strips of bacon.

After the death of Elvis Presley, it was learned that his favorite sandwich was Peanut Butter, Banana & Bacon!

In 1770, the first large bacon curing plant opened.

In 1890, a pound of bacon cost .13¢

In the 16th Century, Europeans would hang their bacon in their home window as a symbol of their wealth.

First Monday in September is International Bacon Day!

"The Virginia House-Wife", thought to be one of the earliest cookbooks, makes reference to bacon.

In 1926, the Cobb Salad was created featuring bacon when a restaurant owner was trying to use up leftovers.

In 1924, the world was introduced to the first packaged, sliced bacon for which a patent was granted.

Bacon now has a "Bacon of the Month" club.

2010

The future of bacon has changed...
Premium Performance Bacon: Taste, Performance & Speed

brought to you by Westin Packaged Meats